Garden of Remembrance

Castlebar, County Mayo.

(Located opposite the Harlequinn Hotel)

A place of peace, a place for reflection

A specially designed thought-provoking memorial to commemorate the men and women from County Mayo who served and died on foreign battlefields in the major World Wars and on UN Peacekeeping operations over the course of the past century.

Located just opposite the Harlequinn Hotel, Lannagh Rd, The Mayo Peace Park, Garden of Remembrance is a specially designed, thought provoking memorial, commemorating the men and women from County Mayo, who served and died with the Allied and Commonwealth Forces in the major world wars of the past century. It also commemorates the members of the Irish Defence Forces from County Mayo who died in the service of peace while on UN Peace Keeping operations, for over the past 53 years. The memorial park commemorates all those who gave their lives for Ireland.

There is also an individual memorial for local born members from An Garda Síochána who gave their lives in the service of the country.

The President of Ireland, Mary McAleese, officially opened the memorial on Tuesday the 7th of October 2008.

Designed by Walsh Designs and the architects' section of Mayo County Council, it has since become a much acclaimed local and international visitor attraction and educational amenity for the area. It is because of this interest that the voluntary committee are working to develop a fully equipped visitor interpretative centre. A qualified tourist guide is available to assist groups or individuals on all local interest.

The book 'Remembering Mayo's Fallen Heroes', and the specially designed Mayo Peace Park jacket badges are available for sale.

Mayo Peace Park is a registered charity in Ireland.

To assist us with our endeavors we encourage people to be a 'Friend of the Mayo Peace Park' and we are grateful for support.
